FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October 16 2001 - Superb Internet Offers Easy Web Creation At Your Fingertips With EasySite!

Vancouver, BC – October 16, 2001

In Superb Internet's relentless pursuit of making it easier for new web hosting customers to get online, we are pleased to announce that our EasySite web site creation service is now online at: <http://easysite.superb.net>. EasySite delivers completely user-friendly web site creation templates that are so easy to use that now anyone can create and publish a professional looking web site in just minutes.

Superb has developed EasySite to provide everything necessary that an individual or businesses alike requires to have to develop and maintain a quality web site without having to hire an outside web design company or go through the lengthy and often disheartening process of learning how to create and maintain a web site.

The EasySite services offer a wide array of quality professional designs and templates built by professional designers with years of experience, to quickly and easily publish a highly attractive and professional looking web site for as little as $9 per month. All the user has to do is sign up and add their personalized text and images. Best of all the EasySite service comes complete with its own web hosting platform connected to one of the best network infrastructures in the industry maintained by 24x7 live, professional network administrators.

"We wanted to provide potential new customers with a web creation tool that was easy to use while allowing them to create professional looking web site, without all the hassles of hiring a web designer or learning web development techniques," stated Curtis R. Curtis, VP Marketing. "It was important that this tool be as simple as possible while still offering first class look."
