

May 2002 - SuperbIndia Team In Mumbai

Our SuperbIndia professional web hosting Consulting Team will be travelling to Mumbai, from May 13, 2002 to May 18, 2002.

Superb Internet Corp. laid the foundation for SuperbIndia, early in 2000. Prior to launching the SuperbIndia office, considerable research was conducted during which extensive feedback has been given to our US Office and a lot of positive changes have been incorporated to the benefits of our India based customers.

Today our SuperbIndia team provides our customers with comprehensive sales, billing, technical and customer support from the India Office, in addition to delivering superior web hosting services to many large, well-known web-enabled organizations.

In the past year since opening the India Office, we have worked tirelessly in our commitment to the India marketplace and are pleased to note that in just one year, we have seen a 1500% increase in our market share. To that end, we have dedicated ourselves to improving the quality of service and the level of commitment we bring to both our customers and our partners.

We are committed to ensuring that we continue to grow and expand our market share in India. Our innovative worldwide marketing campaigns led by our VP of Marketing Curtis R Curtis, our purposeful India centric marketing strategies implemented by our India team are sure proof of the success.

To achieve this, we at SuperbIndia are ready to provide you with innovative ways to win over your competition. We are dedicated to working together with you in order to explore business/web hosting opportunities while ensuring your peace of mind regarding network infrastructure and technical support issues.
